The Messenger

Our Vision:

Building Believers in God's Love, Who Seek to Share God's Love

January 2012

Rev Bob Simpson, Pastor

Aspire to Inspire

What if we took our lengthy lists of changes we want to make in the new year and narrowed them down – way down? Rather than making a half dozen or more commitments that we're unlikely to keep, how about zeroing in on a single word that captures the essence of what we want to achieve or become?

North Carolina pastor Mike Ashcraft encouraged church members to each find one word that points to or describes a characteristic or vision they wanted to achieve in the year ahead. The experiment turned into a movement, with ideas and testimonials available at myoneword.org.

Here's what's inside this issue:

Dated material for January 2012.

Thank you for being part of our church family. May many prayers flow through you, and may many answers to prayer come to you in God's love.

Resolve to Pray

What is your New Year's Resolution this upcoming year?

God bless you in everything you do.

New mercies

Everyone seems to have at least one resolution that seems impossible to keep. And that can become very discouraging.

The prophet Jeremiah, who had his own reasons to feel down, wrote, "The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness" (Lamentations 3:22-23, NRSV).

God refuses to give up on us. When we lose hope, when we fail and fall short, his mercy never runs out. Tomorrow is full of promise and our Lord's unceasing love.

Waiting to blossom

A 1979 song called "The Rose" (written by Amanda McBroom and made popular by Bette Midler) encourages listeners to keep the faith, even when the source of our hope isn't visible.

In the depths of winter, we especially need the reminder that beneath mounds of snow lie seeds already being prepared to burst forth "with the sun's love" into springtime flowers.

When you're in the cold depths of despair, grief, illness or other struggles, remember the deeply buried seed. Beyond your view, God's love is already tending that seed, readying it to blossom into healing, new friendship, joy and life

Do you have something you would like to share with the congregation? Have it added to the Messenger.

The FUMC Messenger is looking for submissions from the congregation to keep all of its members up to date on what's happening in our church. The deadline is the 10th of the month. Please email fumcmessenger@gmail.com

Psalm 37:5, NRSV

⁹ Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices ¹⁰ and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

We have a Ministry at this church that creates handmade Prayer Shawls. They can be knitted, crocheted, quilted or sewn. We mostly work on the Shawl's at home, saying prayers to ask God to provide healing of the body, mind and spirit for the person who receives the Shawl. We do have fun meeting together and sharing our crafts and stories. We meet on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of each month at 10:00am in the upstairs room of the church. We have yarn and some hooks and needles and we can teach you how to crochet or knit. Come experience the gift of giving. For more information, contact:

Marcia Teachout 303-880-5263

"For it was you who formed my inward parts, you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; that I know very well."

Psalm 139:13-14 NRSV

Youth Group- Recycling

Our youth group recycles inkjet cartridges, laser cartridges, cell phones, and aluminum cans, to raise funds. The funds raised this year benefits the youth mission trip.

In addition, we are now able to recycle DVD's, Laptops, MP3 Players, Digital Cameras, Portable DVD Players, Video Game Consoles, and GPS Devices.

Don't throw it away! Please recycle. It's good for the environment, and our youth group will earn funds.

"Ecce Agnus Dei"

Latin for "Behold, the Lamb of God," this is the phrase John the Baptist used twice to point out Jesus to others (John 1:29, 36). It marks Jesus' Epiphany (manifestation, revelation) as the Anointed One (Christ, Messiah).

What not to take into the new year

- Self-help books – Trust in God first; don't turn to him as a last resort. (See Proverbs 3:5-6.)
- Tape measure – Consider only God's standards; don't compare yourself to other people. (See Luke 18:9-14.)
- Rearview mirror – Don't live in the past. You'll miss out on what God is doing in your life now. (See Philippians 3:12-14.)
- Gavel – Stop wasting time judging others. Instead, pray for them, help them and team with them. (See Luke 6:37-38.)
- Life vest – Don't be overly cautious spiritually. Peter experienced Jesus in a real way because he dared to step out of the boat. (See Matthew 14:22-33.)
- Garage-door opener – We think we're networked but often isolate ourselves. God intended for us to live in community with one another. (See Hebrews 10:23-25.)
- Handcuffs – Don't offer excuses about why you can't help out. God can do amazing things through – and despite – us. Just follow him, with no excuses. (See Mark 6:35-44.)

Windsor FUMC Goals 2012-2015

Vital congregations engage disciples so that they 1) worship, 2) make new disciples, 3) grow as disciples, 4) serve in mission, and 5) give with a generous spirit, including giving to mission. Around the world, congregations will identify their commitment in each of these areas. These commitments were gathered by our annual conference and will be presented to General Conference as an offering from our congregation.

People and Ministry	2012	2013	2014	2015
1. Disciples worship Average worship attendance	146	161	177	195
2. Disciples make new disciples - Number of people who will join by profession of faith	10	11	12	14
3. Disciples engage in growing as a disciple - Number of small groups, Sunday school classes and Bible studies	18	20	22	24
4. Disciples engage in mission - Number of people from the congregation engaged in local, national and international mission/outreach	148	179	216	258
5. Disciples give to mission - The total amount given by your congregation to other organizations for support of benevolent and charitable ministries (this amount includes apportionments paid and support for all United Methodist and non-United Methodist organizations active in work such as advocacy, education, health, justice, mercy, outreach, and welfare anywhere in the world)	$17,978	$23,039	$28,190	$33,439

Notes: Goal is full apportionments of $21,500 (Based on budget $166,000*13%) by year 2015

As a church we covenant together just as the first followers of Jesus did (read Acts 2) to seek and discern God's guidance through the Holy Spirit.

We will be faithful in practicing our spiritual disciplines: prayer, worship, Bible study, Holy Communion, giving, and serving.

We will listen to the Holy conversations that produced the outcomes from the DOVE groups, summarizing and noticing the purpose, vision, and mission to which God is calling our church right now.

We will design specific ministry plans that will help us more effectively offer Christ as the answer to people and their needs as described above.

We will set specific and measurable goals in five key areas of ministry in order to see if the seeds we plant are taking root.

We will continue to grow as church leaders to become a highly committed spiritual leadership team who loves Jesus and His Church.

We will ask God to help us hear from the heart and to serve humbly.

Bob's Reflection

January 2012

A little girl, who had never attended Sunday school or received any religious training in her home, was sick in the hospital during the Christmas holidays. On Christmas Day, the nurse in the children's ward brought the girl to the worship service in the chapel where the Nativity Story was told. The nurse, annoyed at having to work on Christmas Day, sat in the back of the room. Hearing the Christmas story for the very first time, the little girl was completely enchanted. After the service she turned to her grim looking nurse and said, "Have you ever heard that story before?" "Yep," answered the nurse, "plenty of times." "Well," said the little girl, "you certainly don't look like it."

Among all the choices I have for New Year's Resolutions, I'm wondering if the one at the top of the list should be: "In 2012, I resolve to Look Like I have heard and believe the story of God's love for me in Jesus Christ." It seems to me that if we each worked toward keeping this one resolution, all the other changes we want to make in our lives would be addressed as well. We can't fake it; others will know, we will know, and God will know. We can't will it; our own resolve will eventually wilt.

The Bible makes it clear that the only way we can authentically live the Good News of Jesus Christ is to let the Holy Spirit transform us. In his letter to the early church in Corinth, Paul wrote, "We all, who with unveiled faces contemplate the Lord's glory, are being transformed into his image... which comes from the Lord who is the Spirit." (2Corinthians 3:18) What are the ways you will contemplate the Lord's glory this year; prayer, Bible study, worship, acts of care and compassion, mission and outreach? The Holy Spirit comes to us through each one of these practices, and promises to help form us more and more into the image of Christ.

With God's help, may each one of us, day by day, Look (more) Like Disciples—changed followers of Jesus—in the coming year!

Blessings to All in 2012,
Bob

JANUARY MISSION MOMENT

The Clothes Closet was originally started by Mel Whipple and Pat Reynolds in 1995. It was opened in the room which was then the nursery of the basement of the First United Methodist Church. Clothes were folded and laid on tables. This quickly became a nuisance as the volunteers had to keep refolding and stacking the items on the tables as people would go through them. In 2010, Jerry Carson made rolling racks which could be easily moved around. Clothes were, and still are, hung on hangers on these racks.

Foothills Cleaners accepts donated coats, cleans them and sends them to the Clothes Closet every winter. Also, Spokes Bicycle Shop takes donations of coats and then brings them to the Closet for distribution. We also have individuals who bring in coats that are too small or are no longer wanted by their families.

Because we have limited space, our donations often become overwhelming and we have no more room to put them. We then take them to Harvest Farms, H.E.L.P., Intl., Salvation Army, etc. H.E.L.P. distributes to 65 different countries and/or anywhere there has been a disaster area in the U.S.

The Clothes Closet is open from 9 A.M. Until 12 noon on Tuesday and Thursday. Evening appointments can be scheduled through the Church office.

Beginning January, 2012, we will require clients to be referred by a Social Service agency. Clients will need a valid identification as well as a referral. School Districts and other churches will also be able to refer persons. If a member of our church knows of a needy family we will also take a referral from them.

The Clothes Closet accepts gently used, clean clothing, shoes, underwear, sheets, blankets, toys, and small appliances (like toasters, coffee pots, etc.). It is important that donated items are in good condition and clean.

One of the main challenges in keeping the Clothes Closet open is the need for more volunteers. Starting in 2012, for the protection of the volunteers, there must be 2 persons available on each Tuesday and Thursday in order to open the Clothes Closet. If 2 volunteers are not present, the Clothes Closet will not open. Please continue to pray about volunteering and for the ongoing operation of the Clothes Closet in 2012.
